Rules and Regulations for the Library.

---

SEC. 1.—The Library shall be open on the first Saturday of each month (August excepted), from 2 o'clock p.m. to 4 o'clock p.m.

SEC. 2.—Members and Subscribers, upon application to the Librarian, may obtain books from the Library, and retain them the specified time; but no Member or Subscriber shall be entitled to have more than five works in his or her possession at the same time.

SEC. 4.—(1) Members are entitled to five volumes only at a time.

(2) A Member retaining any book longer than two months, shall pay the following fine, viz.: 5 cents per month per volume.

(3) No book shall be kept on hand for any Member.

(4) No Member by whom any fee, fine or other charge is due, and to whom notice thereof has been issued, shall, until payment is made, be allowed to take any book.

(5) Members who shall injure, destroy or lose any of the books of the Institute, shall forthwith pay the value of the damage done, or replace the book, as may be determined.

(6) Books defaced with marks or writing shall be considered as injured, and assessed for accordingly.

(7) Members are prohibited from lending books or exchanging them with others.

(8) Members taking books from the Library without having them entered, are subject to expulsion or prosecution, as the Directors may decide.

SEC. 5.—A blank book shall be placed in the Library, in which Members may recommend any work for purchase, subscribing their own names thereto, which work shall be added to the Library, should the funds of the Institute allow of it and the Directors approve of the same.

SEC. 6.—All books must be returned to the Library by the first Saturday in May, in each and every year, so as to enable the Board of Management to make the examination required by By-Law No. III., Sec. 11; and any Member or Subscriber retaining a book or books in violation of this Section, shall pay a fine of 10 cents per volume.
